

Walking with Jesus through the Book of Romans

Discover How

The first eight chapters of Romans is the best explanation of the message on how the perfect and beautiful life of Jesus can change our life. To save man from his sinful condition, to rescue him from the condemnation of the law, the Father sent His own Son, Jesus Christ, in the likeness of our sinful flesh. Then day by day, choice by choice, Jesus wove in His own life a robe of righteous obedience to the Ten Commandments. Why did He do all this? He did it for us, that we might be forgiven for breaking God's law and that the beautiful life described by God's perfect law might be fulfilled in us. See Romans 8:3, 4

Christ lived a sinless life in our sinful flesh that we might live a new life in Him. By the same power that raised Jesus from the dead is the same power that will change us and empower us to walk in the footsteps of Jesus.

2.30pm O wretched man that I am - Romans 7:24
When a man realizes that he cannot save himself, he has come to the very important place of admitting his own helplessness. Then and only then will he truly reach out for divine help and begin to live by faith in what God can do in him.

4:30pm The Manifestation of the Sons of God - Romans 8:19
As we longingly wait for the coming of Christ, men and women of faith all around the world are also waiting for something else, namely, a movement of people who truly live by faith and reflect the image of Jesus in their life.

7:00pm Facing Life's Trials - Romans 8:28
For us to gain strength from every trial, we must believe that all things work together for good to them that love God. We are persuaded that God can make us better, not bitter, in every test and trial.
