What are the best practices for raising and educating children?
What if today’s practices are doing children more harm than good?
Do we know what methods actually work best?
What is the spiritual impact of how we raise and educate our children?

Using the latest brain science and educational research, Joshua gives a clear picture of God’s methods of raising and educating children. He pulls back the veil to expose some of Satan’s most successful attacks on children today.

Supplied with a wealth of knowledge and practical ideas, families will leave the seminar better equipped to raise and educate their children for God’s kingdom.
